A. Strike Team Planning

The strike team is a promotion team and enhance SGA. The cap size for the team will be 100 and shirts will be given to members who put in work. The team will be broken down into five committees.

The first committee will be the Student Liaison Committee which will include students from different schools to report back to SRC different problems or situations that SRC can solve.

The second committee will be the Pub Committee and members will promote all SGA events on social media as well as FAMU Athletics events.

The third committee will be the Public Relations Committee who will be out talking to students encouraging them to come out to SGA events and athletic events. This committee will also work with Mr. Watkins (Marketing Director of FAMU Athletics) with getting more students to come out to games.

The fourth committee will be the Orange and Green Committee and they will be making chants, dances and coming up with ways to build school spirit. This committee will be working with the QOG & KOG

The fifth committee will be the Arts & Crafts Committee and they will be over making signs and propaganda for games and SGA events.

As for the interest meeting, Senator Dumas will be over making an excel sheet for the students to sign in. Senator Hempill will be over making a power point explaining the committees as well as what the strike team is. Senator Lamar will be speaking with Business Auxiliaries to see if SRC can provide refreshments for the students.

B. Strike team Applications

The applications will consist of asking the students name, student I.D, age, classification, email, major, what committee they would like to be on, t-shirt size, ideas for the strike team, and why they would like to be apart of the strike team.

Senator Young will be over composing the applications. They will be printed out.

C. Senate On the Run

There will be no flier for Senate On The Run. S.O.T.R will take place on December 4th from 12-3 P.M, S.O.T.R will run differently this semester. Senators will be in multiple places at one time, that way more students voices can be heard. SRC plans to use Robyn's "Life Saver" initiative. This will consist of asking the students "As an SGA representative, if we could hand you one life saver what would it be?" SRC will be handing out life savers as well.

The target places the senators would like to speak to students will be at the Orange room, the bottom cafe, Footehilyer, the food truck by Gore Education Complex, B.L Perry, and "the block."
