D. Unfinished Business

- No Unfinished business.

E. New Business

- The IROP Revision Senate Attire

Senator Hall moved to switch this point with point Title 4, 5, and 9, so this this bill could go through committee before it hits the senate floor. Pro Tempore Moricette begins with reading his bill, and speaking on some of the revisions made in the bill to the committee. Pro Tempore then goes through the points of what he changed such as typos, grammatical errors, and major changes. Pro Tempore discusses how he thinks committee reports and minutes are the same thing, under 2.05 Point B. Continues to discuss how each committee should have sent their committee IROP's to the J&R Chair. Committee begin to discussion Senate Attire, and the difference between a pullover sweater and a cardigan, and discussed the amount for the Dollar and a Dream. Pro Tempore Moricette and Senator Hall talked about how the language, was very informal in the IROP. Senator Hall motions to accept SBFA17-03 bill with said correction, Senator Strong 2nd. The Aye's have it.

- Titles 4,5, and 9 revisions
Chairwoman explains why Titles 6, 7, and 8 are being skipped. We are waiting until the freshman elections are done to begin revising Title 6, and giving the OFC committee the chance to revise Title 7 then bring it to the J&R committee. Senator Hall moves to return to point C, Senator Jean-Baptiste 2nd. Pro Tempore Moricette has motioned to table these revisions until the next meeting because meeting for the committee has run out, due to Senate meeting at 6p.m., the committee will reconvene during the week to begin revisions, Senator Strong 2nd.
