1. The theme/sickness will be mental health. Sen. J. Jackson found a mental health organization called the National Alliance of Mental Illness(NAMI) that he wanted to incorporate into the showcase but also wanted to reach out to the on-campus mental health organizations including: iShallBe, Sunshine Manor, Active Minds, and the FAMU counseling services.

2. Sen J. Jackson doesn't want to go far away from the blueprint but add our own flavor for the showcase. He wants to have ideas more concrete by next week.

3. Auditions will possibly be October 25th, pubbing for that will start the week after homecoming.

4. The committee wants to implement more organizations, so each committee member will contact 2 organizations that we each want to see perform in the showcase.

B. Mental Health Week

1. Mental Health Week will the same week as StrikeOut Showcase, the showcase will the grand finale of the week.

C. New Initiatives

1. Initiatives will have to be pushed by due to funding, Sen. J. Jackson will speak to Briceon about graphics for volunteers.

E. Open Forum (2 Minutes)

1. Sen Pro-Temp Moricette wants the SRC to reach out the university housing leadership about attending their mandatory meetings and letting them know how the freshman can be involved. He feels it will be a great way to reach out to the university community. Also, he wants the SRC make sure they tell the freshman to look at the SGA App and once we get funding to get a SGA Bulletin Board. Many of the student body walk through the set, they can stop by and look at announcements that are coming up in SGA and across campus.
