A. Finalizing Details of Strikeout Showcase

The theme for the showcase is mental health and it be the Friday of our mental health week. The Strike Out showcase will be in Gaither Gym at 7 PM and doors will open at 6:30. There are 8 organizations the SRC wants to perform at the showcase. Sen. Hempill has sent out an email asking presidents if their organization can perform at the showcase. Committee members are also asking by word of mouth if the organizations want to perform. Auditions for host/acts will be October 25th, the SRC is looking for 2 hosts and 4 acts to perform along with the organizations at the showcase.

B. Mental Health Week

Mental Health Week will be Nov 6th through Nov 10th.

On Monday, November 6th, the SRC hopes to have FAMU Counseling Services along with Active Minds out on the quad informing the students about mental health and giving out lime green ribbons to support the cause. The color for mental health is lime green. Sen. Hempill will be over Monday's festivities.

Tuesday, November 7th, the SRC wants to have a panel informing the student body about mental health along with catering. Sen. Lamar suggested partnering with the FYE program and going into SLS classes to promote the week and the event. Sen. Lamar and Sen Plaisir will be over the panel event. Also on Tuesday, the SRC will promote the #iShallBe challenge on Instagram.

Wednesday, November 8th, the SRC wants to put on a yoga session at the rec from 6-8 P.M. Sen. Young and Sen. Dumas will be over the event.

Thursday, November 9th, the SRC wants to have an event on the quad where you write your goals a small strip of paper and either put it into a balloon and let it fly into the air or into a small bottle for a keepsake. Then students will write everything that is stressing them out on a notecard the SRC will burn it for them.

Friday, November 10th, will be the StrikeOut Showcase.

C. Housing Initiative

Sen. Pro-Temp Moricette wants the SRC to attend mandatory housing meeting and inform the student body of what is going on in SGA and provide updates on events. Sen. Dumas has already spoked to the Sampson Hall and their mandatory meeting will be in two weeks.

D. Senate On The Run

Sen. Young spoke to Senate President Ford offline about the event and he suggested doing a winter version of Senate On The Run in December. The SRC agrees with it and Sen. J. Jackson wants to have the SRC volunteers at the event as well.

E. Open Forum (2 Minutes)

Sen. Plaisir thinks the meeting went well and at the panel event there should be a hashtag used for Twitter during the event and possibly showing the panel event on SGA Live.

Sen Pro-Temp likes where the SRC is going, he loves that the freshman are taking charge and getting active.

Sen J. Jackson is proud of the freshman senators and encourages everyone to have a good week.

Sen. Lamar is glad to be here. He thinks the direction we are going in is going to put SGA on the map. His vision is to be involved with the student body. He encourages everyone to be the person you were before the senate meetings.
