Title: Caribbean Student Association Special Allocation

Legislation: Senate Appropriation Bill

Whereas, The Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University’s Student Senate is the law making entity of the Student Government Association and is empowered to allocate funds to Small Clubs and Organizations, and

Whereas, The Student Senate has an annual responsibility of ensuring certified organizations and university departments are funded properly in order for the clubs and organizations to function in a capacity that is in the best interest of the student body, and

Whereas, The Caribbean Student Association upholds their purpose to foster academic, social, cultural, and intellectual development of students from the Caribbean, students of Caribbean descent, and students who are interested in the Caribbean culture, and

Whereas, The Caribbean Student Association requests funds to allow them to travel to the annual Florida Caribbean Student Association (FCSA) leadership retreat in Tampa, Florida which will help students to develop their leadership skills through workshops focusing on team building, effective leadership seminars, and fine tuning their networking skills, and

Whereas, This year, the FCSA is planning to give students an intensive leadership experience that will provide members of the Caribbean Student Association with a better sense of their strengths and weaknesses, which members will be able to utilize within their organization and as students on the campus Florida A&M University, now

Therefore, Be it appropriated to the Caribbean Student Association eight hundred, sixty-nine dollars and forty-eight cents ($869.48) to assist with traveling to the FCSA leadership retreat.
