

Department of State

Greetings Rattlers,

It is with great pleasure to welcome you to the Department of State. The Department of State is within the Executive Branch and it caters to the needs of students. The Department of State is responsible for promoting goodwill for Florida A&M University and its Student Government Association in the Tallahassee area and throughout the State of Florida.

The Department of State aids in welcoming guests and visitors to the student body and the campus of Florida A&M University. We will establish sound relationships between students and student visitors. Our department will always strive to have positive relationships between students and visiting dignitaries. We will serve on the advisory board to Mr. and Miss FAMU and their court. This Department will humbly serve as coordinator and official host of all Student Government Association functions. In addition, we will coordinate activities for interacting with Student Government Associations of other colleges and universities across the country, especially other Historically Black Colleges & Universities. The functions and responsibilities will be carried out as a reflection of Florida A&M University.

With Love & Charity,

Alexys Z. Lynn
Secretary of State

Melinda Honore
Deputy Secretary of State
