B. Senate Training Debriefing

Third senate training this past Saturday it went good overall. We had a couple of mishaps; such as we started a hour late, the senate president had to tell others to get off of their phones and that shouldn't be, but other than that. Senator Hall got a lot of positive feedback; we did not really touch much on finance. We've had three now and we will be having another one for the whole senate body.

Senator Hall suggests having a bonding event such as a family dinner or anything to build stronger relationship in the L Branch.
