Title: Florida A&M University College of Law Environmental Law Society

Whereas, The Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University Student Senate is the Legislative Branch of the Student Government Association and is empowered to pass legislation as it deems necessary to carry out the will of the Student Body, and 2nd Whereas, The Environmental Law Society seeks fair treatment and meaningful involvement of all people, regardless of race, color, national origin, or income with respect to the development, implementation, and enforcement of environmental laws, regulations, and policies. The FAMU chapter of ELS works to promote environmental justice issues affecting our central Florida communities. FAMU ELS believes that equal access to the decision-making process is vital to the protection of our most vulnerable communities from environmental hazards.

3rd Whereas, This special allocation will allow ELS to host an in depth conference on harmful algal blooms and discuss the legal impact of this important issue on our community.

4th Whereas, This legislation will allow FAMU ELS to give students exposure in the legal community, foster meaningful discussion on environmental issues, and to bring exposure to our institution from local and national practitioners.

Therefore Be It Appropriated; $6,390.80 to the FAMU Environmental Law Society.
