Title: ASABE Regional Student Rally & Annual International Meeting

Whereas,	The Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University Student Senate is the Legislative Branch of the Student Government Association, and it is empowered to pass legislation, as it deems necessary, to carry out the functions of the Student Government Association, and
Whereas,	Accredited by the Board of Engineering and Technology, the FAMU chapter of the American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers (ASABE) is an organization dedicated to the advancement of competitive students enrolled in the Biological System Engineering (BSE) program within the College of Agriculture and Food Sciences (CAFS), and
Whereas,	A lack of funding from the CAFS prohibits BSE scholars from attending the Southeast Region ASABE Rally, an annual conference where BSE students have the opportunity to further their academic development by competing in design projects and presentations, strengthen their network by interacting with representatives from different leading universities along with leading engineering industries, and
Whereas,	The Southeast Regional ASABE Rally provides BSE students with the knowledge and resources necessary to make a global impact; by exposing students to the latest ideals and endeavors of successful Agriculture Engineers, The ASABE Southeast Region Rally enables BSE students to focus on solving renown global issues, advancing the living conditions of people across the world, and discovering innovative ways to improve agriculture production.
Therefore,	Be it Appropriated, eighteen thousand, two hundred-seventy dollars ($18,270.00) to fund the Southeast Regional ASABE Rally held from April 6 - 8, 2018.

Proviso Language: The legislation shall take effect immediately upon signage by the Student Body President and a presentation about the rally shall be given to the Student Senate on April 16, 2018.
