Title: FAMU Health and Educational Relief Organization

Whereas,	All senators of Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University Student Government Association are empowered to allocate funds to any club or organization or event as stated in the Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University Student Body Constitution Article III Section 6 , and
Whereas,	The purpose of Health and Educational Relief Organization is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping students develop into well rounded and knowledgeable health professionals in respected fields. Through compassion, community service, and educated outreach we will continue to accomplish our mission and make a difference in under-represented communities globally and
Whereas,	The Mission of the Health and Educational Relief Organization is to build infrastructure within the organization to sustain over the years. Also to give students who seek experience in the health care field the experience needed, as well as adding opportunities to shadow HERO Inc. physicians in New York and Pennsylvania with limited cost to students as possible and
Whereas,	FAMU HERO seeks to go on a mission trip to represent those minorities who may not have a voice in their community, and by doing so showing a kind act of service to not only the people in the community but to the students for allowing them to gain experience that would later be used in their future careers and
Therefore,	Be it appropriated, five thousand two-hundred and ninety-four dollars ($5,294.00) to the FAMU Health and Educational Relief Organization to attend a mission trip where they will provide service, gain on the job training and showcase academic excellence so that they will be prepared for future life in the health care field.
