E-Branch Report: November 13, 2017

OLD BUSINESS

- Town Hall (Attendees 20+)
- The Town Hall was a success, thanks to all that came out.
- We will utilize the time at the Classic, as a tri-branch to decide how to go about some of the students concerns and issues.
- Project 130 (Department of Community Affairs pairing with Volunteer Services Program).
- Project 130 is working to provide Thanksgiving Baskets to 130 families in need from our local community.
- We have been accepting nonperishable items and would like to reach our goal of 130 baskets by November 20th.
- Please contact Peachlin James or Tykia Maxwell if you have any questions about Project 130.
- Contact information is in E-Branch workroom on the E Branch Resource Board.
- Head Shots for all SGA Members
- Head shots were successful.
- If you contacted Alexys Lynn about rescheduling then that is in the works. Please remain responsive in efforts to reschedule.
- Official SGA Student Lobbying Group Applications
- We are searching for well qualified students with a passion for change on and off-campus.
- Application are upstairs in the lobby waiting area.

NEW BUSINESS

- SGA Meet and Greet/Block Party
- Meet and greet for this week is cancelled.
- Instead we will be having a Meet and Greet/Ugly Sweater Christmas Party.
- This party will be similar to the “Green Room Social.”
- It will be in the top café with music and food.
- ALL SGA will be in partnership for this event.

- Medicine Mixer
- This will take place November 29, 2017 at 5:30pm in the Grand Ballroom.
- Flyer will be sent by the end of the work week
- If you know any presidents in health-related organizations please contact the Secretary of Academic Affairs, Cayuna Williams, so that she may invite them to the event. (Point at Cayuna)
- Upcoming Legislative Appointments
- The Office of Governmental Relations has contacted SGA in efforts to get students to come to some of the appointments and meet their respective legislators.
- Please contact Arriona Tindell, Director of Student Lobbying for the schedule of these upcoming legislative appointments. (Point in Arriona direction)
- We would like for as many SGA and students to attend the appointment on behalf of the students and their perspectives.
